NASHVILLE WINE AUCTION

Uniting The Wine Community To Fund The Fight Against Cancer

Helpful Tips for First Time Guests

Nashville Wine Auction has been offering wine events for 42 years! For those who've been participating for years, it seems simple; but for a newcomer, it can be overwhelming. Let us offer you some helpful tips so you won't miss out on any of the fun.

Perhaps the most important thing to know is to bring your own wine for dinner. l'Eté du Vin features outstanding wines during the reception; however, we do not provide wine during the dinner itself. Our patrons enjoy bringing their own cellar favorites to share with their table. When you arrive at the party, a volunteer can assist you with getting your wine to your table and arrange for a bucket of ice if you need one. If you happen to forget your wine at home, don't worry, we will be happy to assist you with a bottle at the Registration table.

Tip: We want to make sure you know to bring wine with you for dinner. We suggest bringing at least 1 bottle per person with you on Saturday evening, along with a corkscrew.

Registration

Please check in at Registration when you arrive. This process will go much faster if we receive your information in advance. This includes: cell phone number, email and credit card information along with all guest names.

Tip: Be sure your guests know the name your table is under (ex. ABC Inc. or John and Jane Smith's Table). If we do not have their names in our system, the search takes much longer.

Mobile Bidding

Our Silent Auction opens on Saturday, October 16 at 12:00 pm. Registered attendees of all events will have access to the Silent Auction through Mobile Bidding. You will receive a welcome text on Saturday with a link to the auction. If you do not receive a welcome text it means we do not have your phone number or credit card information in our system. Please call the office at (615) 329-1760 to gain access to the Silent Auction.

Tip: It makes the Reception on Saturday night much more enjoyable if you have reviewed the Silent Auction and "starred" your favorites before the event.

l'Eté du Vin

The Auction

We encourage everyone to read the catalog and research your favorites before the auction! There is a wealth of information about the organizations we support, the special guests you'll be meeting, the wines you'll be drinking, the lots we are selling, and even future Nashville Wine Auction events. Make notes in the margin and bring the catalog with you on auction night.

Tip: Please note that we must have your guests' addresses on file to mail them a physical catalog prior to the event.

Bidding and Buying

Our Live Auction is exciting and moves quickly. Following along in your (pre-marked) catalog and watching the screens will help you keep up. If you want to bid, bid quickly and in a big way. Stand up, wave your hand so the auctioneer can see you. If you try to wait until the last second, you risk not being seen.

Tip: Help defray our credit card costs and bring a check on auction night to pay for your purchases. Paying by check allows us to give more money to our beneficiaries to help fund the fight against cancer.
