LIVE AUCTION

For decades Nashville Wine Auction has enjoyed the support of Randy Rayburn. Thank you Randy and Sonata.

Pop Quiz:

What is the best way to start a party?

Answer:

Bubbles, obviously!

You all scored 100%. And if you want extra credit, you'd kick off the party with a magnum of Dom Pérignon!

All Nashville Wine Auction parties begin with bubbles, so it's no wonder we're starting out this catalog the same way. This magnum is fun, delicious, and ready to drink. Win this bottle and you'll be the party starter at your next soirée!

Cheers to 2019 Pairings, let's get this shindig started in style shall we?

Dom Pérignon 2000 (1.5L)

» The 2000 Dom Pérignon is a gorgeous, seductive wine that floats on the palate with remarkable grace. Toasty aromas meld into freshly cut flowers, apricots and pears, with sweet notes of mint and licorice that linger on the long finish. This perfumed, inviting Dom Pérignon is elegance personified, and in this vintage the wine fully merits its lofty reputation. (94 AG)

JIM & KIMBERLY LEWIS

FROM THE PRIMA WINE CELLAR

The support of Jim and Kimberly Lewis has made a great impact on Nashville Wine Auction over the past several years. We're grateful for this generous donation from you both.

Kosta Browne: the iconic winery with waiting lists longer than Biscuit Love.

It is quite possibly the biggest name in California Pinot Noir. At any given time, roughly 30,000 members are awaiting the release of the popular appellation wines or access to highly limited, single vineyard wines. While many have to wait a mere 18 months for their first bottles to arrive, there is also a 12-year wait-list for active buyers looking to secure "4-Barrel" - a 100-case production of their best Pinot Noir lots from select vineyards.

With this lot, one lucky bidder gets to "skip the line" and take home a case of 2015 Kosta Browne Pinot Noir, six bottles of Russian River Valley and six bottles of Sonoma Coast.

Get your hands on some of the most prized Pinot out there, without having to fight the crowds.

Kosta Browne Russian River Valley Pinot Noir 2015 (6 bottles)

» There are 5500 cases of the 2015 Pinot Noir Russian River Valley and it's a deeply colored, ripe, sexy, beast of an appellation wine that's as good, or better, than several of the single vineyards. Black raspberries, cassis, roasted herbs, violets, and loads of toasted spice give way to a full-bodied, beautifully textured 2015 that has sweet tannin and a great finish. It's already drinking beautifully but should keep nicely on its balance and purity. (95 JD)

SKIP THE LINE AND GET A CASE OF KOSTA BROWNE

Kosta Browne Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir 2015 (6 bottles)

» The 2015 Pinot Noir Sonoma Coast is straight up classic. Black raspberries, spice, caramelized cherries and forest floor characteristics all flow to a rich, balanced, gorgeously textured wine that has perfectly integrated fruit, tannin and alcohol. It has fine, yet present tannin and a great finish, and will easily keep through 2025. (92 JD)

There's something very satisfying knowing that Nashville Wine Auction patrons such as Jim and Rahel have more fun than we do entertaining, enjoying great food and wine, and FIGHTING CANCER.

As we approach the end of winter, let's set our sights on warmer times ahead. Imagine this: the sun has set on a lazy Summer Saturday, leaving a warm glow of anticipation of a glass of wine. You're in a gorgeous backyard setting, the barbecue is cooking and that marvelous scent wafts through a lively group of party goers. With a glass of Pinot Noir in hand, the friendly group enjoys the succulent feast and takes a moment to digest as visions of dance parties and disco balls dangle in the distance.

Feeling warm and fuzzy yet? This vision can become a reality for 60 people. Clear your schedule on Saturday, August 24 and join Jim Sloan and Rahel Klapheke Sloan for a backyard Pig Roast to cap off the summer.

Donelan Family Wines, one of Sonoma's most prolific cool-climate producers, will be bringing in some of the best wines... and their best guest. Cushing Donelan will be in attendance, and if he's even a fraction as fun as he was at Pairings last year, you can be sure he's a worthy party-crasher. If you've been clamoring for some of the most sought-after New World Pinots, here's your chance to have them poured directly into your glass. G Catering will be roasting a pig in the back yard and bringing all the fixin's to round out this soirée.

This one will be yummy and fun, y'all.

FANTESCA ESTATE & WINERY

It's a great thing to know Mandi Ackerman! Thank you Mandi and Fantesca for your ongoing support.

Fantesca Estate & Winery is one of those rare places that actually has a rich history of Napa's early winemaking. Originally part of the dowry of Caroline Bale when she married Charles Krug in 1860, the property was recognized even back then as prime mountain vineyard land and the perfect place for a Spring Mountain winery. In 1889, a Cabernet Sauvignon made by Hannah Weinberger, one of the earliest female winemakers, won one of the first awards for a wine from the Napa Valley.

When Susan and Duane Hoff learned that a property in the highly-regarded Spring Mountain District was for sale in 2004, a tasting of the wine cemented the future of this winery with such a storied past.

In early 2008, Fantesca proudly welcomed an exciting new addition to their winemaking team, veteran winemaker Heidi Peterson Barrett, whose stellar Napa Valley resume includes winemaking stints at Screaming Eagle, Dalla Valle, and her own La Sirena.

The All Great Things red blend series is inspired by the words of Winston Churchill: "All great things are simple, and many can be expressed in a single word: freedom, justice, honor, duty, mercy, hope."

This vertical of 2011-2016 is the perfect addition to any cellar.

PATEL NAPA VALLEY

Thank you Raj for introducing your great wines to Nashville!

Do you fancy yourself a Bordeaux drinker who also has a hankering for Napa? It's a rare combo, and you're not alone. Thankfully, PATEL has just what the doctor ordered. Hand-crafted Bordeaux blends with a Napa expression, these wines are on the "gotta have it" lists of collectors, drinkers, and critics alike. The dynamic team, comprised of founder Raj Patel, General Manager Ken Nicholas, and winemaker Kian Tavakoli, is the core reason for this young winery's unfathomable leap straight to being the talk of the town. Their innovative approaches and blending tactics generate fantastic wines that are the perfect Bordeaux/Napa crossover.

Here's your chance to taste through a vertical of their signature Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon, which received a Parker 95 right out of the gate in 2007.

Here's a rundown of the day's festivities:

The Ride – Experience the beauty of Napa Valley during the springtime on a private cycling excursion (27- or 38-mile routes). Pass through vineyard-lined avenues, sharing the road with cycling pros and friends of the Crush Challenge. Former professional cyclists and members of the venerated Team 7-Eleven that first brought the USA to the Tour de France will be joining the private ride, where they will be riding in support of their teammate Davis Phinney and his foundation for Parkinson's.

The wine tasting includes access to the Food & Wine Marketplace as well, for a complete day of the finest food and wine the Napa Valley has to offer.

Food & Wine Marketplace – Local vintners and favorite restaurants bring their tasting rooms and kitchens to you to create a marketplace unlike anywhere else. Walk around the marketplace and sample local wines and favorite culinary dishes while enjoying live music as well as a silent auction and raffle.

Exclusive Wine Dinner – A sold-out dinner with celebrity chefs. Five courses, five of the greatest chefs.

The Auction – The silent and live auction includes rare wines, private vineyard dinners, wine-inspired art, exotic vehicle experiences, a South African safari vacation, Napa Valley private home stays, and more.

100% of the net proceeds from Crush Challenge go to charities including the deLeuze Family Endowed Professorship for a Non-Toxic Cure for Lymphoma, The Davis Phinney Foundation for Parkinson's, and Boys & Girls Clubs of Napa Valley. What an amazing way to spend an October day in Napa!

EXPERIENCING SONOMA WITH KISTLER VINEYARDS AND FRIENDS

This trip for 6 includes:

- 2 night stay for 3 couples at Mayacama private golf and residential community
- Tasting and lunch for 6 at Kistler Vineyards
- Tasting for 6 at 32 Winds
- Tasting for 6 at Small Vines

KISTLER VINEYARDS

Many thanks to Karin and Brooke for putting together these fantastic experiences.

Sip your way through Sonoma in style! Three lucky couples will stay at Sonoma's members-only private golf and wine club residence, Mayacama, as they enjoy VIP private experiences and tastings. Doesn't that sound enticing?

Nestled in the cozy country town of Healdsburg is a private club as unique and beguiling as the region itself, complete with golf course, tennis courts, spa, hiking, and pools. Mayacama is an idyllic home away from home.

With such luxurious accommodations, it's only fitting that the tastings mirror in splendor. Top of the list is a trip to Kistler, where a private tasting and lunch in the vineyard awaits. You'll learn why Robert Parker claims, "If the Kistler Winery could be magically transported to the middle of Burgundy's Côte d'Or, it would quickly gain a reputation as glorious as any producer of Burgundy grand crus."

Also on the agenda is a trip to 32 Winds, nestled alongside the "not so dry" Dry Creek stream. They produce 2500 cases per year of award winning, consistently highly rated Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, Cabernet and Zinfandel from hand selected vineyards in the AVA's of West Sonoma Coast, Russian River Valley, Napa Valley, and Dry Creek Valley. It's any boutique winery lover's dream!

To complete this special Sonoma experience is a private tasting at Small Vines winery. There's a spot in the rolling hills of dusty Goldridge soil west of the town of Sebastopol where you might think you've just stumbled across a little piece of Burgundy in Sonoma County. While most quality-driven winegrowing operations in Sonoma County have moved to closer spacing than traditional 10- or 12-foot rows, these narrow rows are only four feet across! Paul and Kathryn Sloan craft exquisite, small lot, grand cru inspired artisan wines sourced from their sustainably-farmed estate vineyard.

Experience Sonoma the way it is meant to be experienced.

Please note: David Bragg Travel, Nashville Wine Auction's preferred Travel Advisor, can assist with booking flights and making arrangements to extend your trip.

Restrictions: Itinerary subject to change based on availability at time of booking. Trip must be booked within a year from purchase. Trip does not include airfare, driver or rental car. Trip restrictions apply, see Trip Guidelines in the Auction Rules and Reference section of the catalog.

A total of 12 spots will be sold separately. The Auctioneer will explain the rules from the podium.

ADAM & VALERIE LANDA

CITY WINERY

The generosity of Valerie and Adam Landa is overwhelming. Thank you Adam for creating another amazing wine dinner.

Are you a true Turley fan? Do your dreams go something like, "Zzzzzzinfandel"? Are you old vine obsessed? Are you on the two year waiting list to get your hands on this ultra-ripe juice? Look no further, this dinner has all that and a bottle of Sauternes.

City Winery (hey, that's where we are right now!) is the location, Adam and Valerie Landa are your gracious hosts. 12 high bidders will convene right here on Friday, June 7, 2019 to taste through an amazing portfolio of Turley's high quality, old-vine, single vineyard Zinfandel.

Dr. Larry Turley, former emergency room physician until 1997 and co-founder of Frog's Leap winery, turned heads with his groundbreaking style and finesse. His wines had unprecedented richness and concentration, unlike anything else out there at the time. Other California producers had access to old-vine Zinfandel, yet no winery made such flamboyant wines.

California was stuck in a Cabernet-centric frenzy when Turley stepped in with the Zin.

This dinner is not to be missed. You better be raiZIN your paddle right this second!

This wine lot includes:

- D.R. Stephens Estate
Moose Valley Vineyard
Cabernet Sauvignon
2003 (3L)

D.R. STEPHENS ESTATE

It's so nice to have David in Nashville again. Thank you for sharing D.R. Stephens with us.

For those who are Pairings Pros, D.R. Stephens should be a household name at this point. The estate is owned and operated by Don R. Stephens and his son Justin. During Don's time in law school in the Bay Area, he and some partners started a steakhouse restaurant in San Francisco where he gained appreciation for fine wine and especially for how Cabernet Sauvignon pairs with steak. Fast forward through a successful career in real estate and private equity investment to 1996 when he planted the nine-acre Moose Valley Vineyard and had their first release of their 1999 D.R. Stephens Estate Moose Valley Cabernet Sauvignon in 2002. The wine was extremely well received in the food and restaurant world and was immediately added to the wine lists of some of the best restaurants in many of the major cities.

They're one of our favorites here at Nashville Wine Auction, and if we know anything about how you feel about them, this 3L of their flagship Moose Valley Cabernet is bound for a bidding war.

JIM & KIMBERLY LEWIS
AND THE PRIMA WINE CELLAR

Another great donation from our Chairman of the Board and his lovely wife Kimberly. We are grateful.

Ever wondered what the most searched-for US wine by Wine Searcher users is? ONE of California's--and subsequently the world's--most famous wines, the lovechild of Robert Mondavi and Baron Philippe de Rothschild, the first of California's "cult" wines. That's right, we're talking about Opus One. Consistently pulling scores over 90 points, these wines don't come cheap... But when you're the most popular name in Napa, who's counting?

The 2011 Opus vintage is, unsurprisingly, delicious. A high rainfall vintage, it mirrors the 1995 and 1986. Critics and collectors are excited about the future of this vintage, so it's definitely something you want in your cellar.

Opus One 2011 (4 bottles)

» This is very aromatic and pretty with plum, cherry and currant aromas, plus hints of chocolate. It's full-bodied, with soft, silky tannins and a clean, fresh finish. This is a subtly fruity, juicy red with a pretty texture. Drink or hold. 71% Cabernet Sauvignon, 11% Merlot, 9% Petit Verdot, 8% Cabernet Franc and 1% Malbec (5/2014) (92 JS)

Do you want to put your next trip to Sonoma over the top? Then get ready to bid because your VIP Williams Selyem experience awaits!

Two couples will stay for two luxurious nights at Williams Selyem Estate Winery in Russian River Valley. The stay includes a private, VIP tour and tasting AND immediate access to the coveted Mailing List with an allocation for the next release. A picture perfect Sonoma stay, what more could you want?

How about some more wine? In addition to your spot on the mailing list, you'll also walk out of the room tonight with a double magnum of 2016 Westside Road Neighbors Pinot Noir.

Here's a little about the winery:

Williams Selyem Winery began as a simple dream between two friends, Ed Selyem and Burt Williams, who pursued weekend winemaking as a hobby in 1979 in a garage in Forestville, California. In less than two decades, they had created a cult-status winery of international acclaim. Together they set a new standard for Pinot Noir winemaking in the U.S., aligning Sonoma County's Russian River Valley in the firmament of the best winegrowing regions of the world.

Today, John and Kathe Dyson, who purchased the winery in 1998, carry on the passion for Pinot Noir winemaking without compromise. By following proven traditions of respecting the individuality of the growers and vineyards from which they source the fruit, Director of Winemaking Jeff Mangahas and team continue to deliver distinctive, world-class Pinot Noir and Chardonnay in the heart of Sonoma County.

Grab your friends and get your paddles up to secure this exclusive Sonoma County experience!

Nashville Wine Auction would not exist without the generous participation of winemakers. We are honored to partner with these Napa Greats on this very special trip to Napa.

A trip to Napa is one of the greatest pleasures in life. Even better? ...When the wineries open their doors in friendship, fostering memories and relationships that last a lifetime.

Three couples will walk away tonight with a jam-packed Napa experience at some of the coolest spots in town. If you've fallen in love with our vintner guests this weekend and can't imagine not seeing them again, fear not! This is your chance to visit six different wineries on their home turf. Your base will be the Clif Family Winery's Cold Springs Guest House, and you can expect to experience Napa as a treasured VIP guest.

As the high bidder on this lot Nashville Wine Auction will book your trip and also provide a driver for two days of your tasting itinerary. Here's how the rest of the trip will unfold:

Day One

Arrive early afternoon for a tasting of Harumph Wines at Brasswood Bar + Kitchen in St. Helena. Greeting you will be Harumph founders, Scotti Stark and Michael DeSantis. Start your experience with a tour of the Brasswood property and then settle in for a tantalizing lunch paired with Harumph's luscious Cabs. What a fun way to be welcomed to Napa Valley Wine Country!

Your next stop is Clif Family Winery where you will check into the Clif Cold Springs Guest House, your home for the next three nights. Approximately 15 minutes away on Howell Mountain in Angwin, this lovely setting will offer both a fun indoor and outdoor stay with plenty of room for your entire party. Be sure to pack your swimsuit, the hot tub beckons!

Dinner tonight is on your own. There are many places to choose in St. Helena, but we suggest Archetype. Reservations suggested.

Day Two

Connect with your driver and start your day in Coombsville where you'll visit Italics Winegrowers for a VIP tour, tasting and picnic lunch! Go off-road exploring the property to see what makes their vineyards so special. Tour the caves before enjoying a pairing of small bites with Italics' luxury Bordeaux varietals. Your tasting will continue with a box lunch from one of Napa's renowned restaurants.

Your next tasting experience will be with Roy Estates in their new Vineyard Studio. Their exceptional landscape immediately south of the renowned Stags Leap District is perfect for planting Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, and Petit Verdot grapes. With two noticeably distinct sites divided by the creek, acclaimed winemaker Philippe Melka, says it is, "akin to the Right Bank and Left Bank in Bordeaux."

Dinner tonight is on your own and we suggest Yountville options including: Bouchon Bistro, R+D Kitchen, or Mustard's.

Day Three

Take your time this morning as your first stop is with your host, Clif Family! This picturesque Howell Mountain estate is nestled amongst a stunning forested vineyard. Taste Clif Family's beautifully crafted wines paired perfectly with local cheeses and products from Clif Family Kitchen's specialty foods. Afterwards, enjoy a private lunch prepared by the Clif Family Bruschetteria Food Truck. Your biggest challenge of the day? Leaving this slice of heaven, but no worries. More fun is on the way.

Davies Vineyards and Schramsberg are two names associated with historical greatness in the Napa Valley. Schramsberg played multiple major roles in world history. President Nixon brought Schramsberg's Blanc de Blancs to China for his epic visit at the 1972 Toast to Peace. Since then, Schramsberg has been served at official State functions by every sitting U.S. President. Hugh Davies launched Davies Vineyards and took over the helm in 2005. He was instrumental in replanting historical hillside vineyards to Bordeaux varietals. Enjoy this lovely tasting at the Davies Vineyards tasting room in St. Helena and soak in the history of this legendary Napa Valley family.

Another delightful visit awaits you at Kelly Fleming Wines. Enjoy your private tour and tasting at their Estate Winery, located in the secluded canyons of Calistoga. DUNN VINEYARDS

Mike Dunn. What can we say. We love you!

We here in Nashville have an affinity for Dunn Vineyards Cab (as well as Dunn puns if you've been with us for a few years).

All joking aside, Dunn Vineyards is top tier in our books (and in the books of critics and connoisseurs worldwide). Randy Dunn, Winemaking Rebel, has been making some of the best Napa Valley Cab for over 30 years. One of the original pioneers in defining the area's reputation, complete with cowboy hat, Dunn pours his ferocity and style into the essence of his wines.

Anyone who's had even just one sip of Dunn's Howell Mountain Cabernet knows to leap at any chance to procure its goodness. In the past Nashville Wine Auction has offered some of the best from Dunn, and this lot is no different. An Imperial of the 2010 Howell Mountain Cabernet is at stake here, so don't hesitate. You don't want to have any regrets when all is said and Dunn.

Dunn Vineyards Howell Mountain Cabernet Sauvignon 2010 (5L)

» The Dunn is powerful, structured and incisive, with magnificent expression of site and fabulous overall balance. Dunn's 2010 Cabernet Sauvignon Howell Mountain will go down as one of the great wines of this vintage. Readers have to be patient, but there is no question the 2010 is a real stunner. Knowing how hard it will be to wait, I expect the 2010 will start to open up around age ten.

GRACE AND SOPHISTICATION FROM LOUIS LATOUR VOLNAY

This wine lot includes:

- Louis Latour En Chevret Volnay Premier Cru 2013 (12 bottles)

JIM & KIMBERLY LEWIS
FROM THE PRIMA WINE CELLAR

We're so glad the Lewis's have great taste. Thanks for these Burgundy Beauties.

Volnay is considered the Chambolle-Musigny of the Côte de Beaune. Located between Pommard (famous for its powerful reds) and Meursault (the home of rich whites), Volnay wines are the silkiest, smoothest and most feminine of the Burgundian Pinots... Which is why we love them so much!

En Chevret is surrounded by some of the top Premier Cru sites in Volnay, including Clos des Chênes and Caillerets. The soil is a mix of clay and limestone and has quite high levels of iron. The wines are quite concentrated and structured, and the easterly exposition and the specific terroir of this single vineyard create an elegant wine at each vintage.

Take home this case of elegant lady Volnay from Louis Latour, a historic powerhouse of Burgundy. Go ahead and raise your paddle, but do it with as much grace and sophistication as possible... It's the Volnay way!

WILLIAM COLE VINEYARDS

*Many thanks to our friends Bill and Jane Ballentine.
We love you. We love your wine and we love Emily too!*

Here's your chance to travel back in time to Napa's vineyard history with one of Napa's premier estates: William Cole Vineyards. In case you didn't know the fantastically interesting history of the William Cole estate, here's the 4-1-1.

When William and Jane Ballentine bought a nineteenth century ghost winery in St. Helena in 1999, they had no idea it would take them years to open its doors which had been shuttered since Prohibition. They enthusiastically began an extensive renovation of the 1873 stone wine cellar, uncovering the incredibly rich history of the property. William and Jane restored the original integrity of the winery while incorporating modern winemaking techniques. The property was deemed so important to the history of Napa Valley that the county wrote a special historic ordinance allowing it to be reopened as a winery. William and Jane have taken great pains to preserve and take immense pride in being "stewards of the land."

Whoever wins this lot will get an exclusive three-night stay at this historic estate for three couples. In addition, Emily Davies will set up tasting appointments for your stay. And because the Ballentines wouldn't let you go home empty handed, you are also going home with a six-bottle vertical of their Cuvée Claire Cabernet Sauvignon, the cornerstone of the William Cole portfolio.

Raise your paddle... Now raise it even higher. That's better.

CARLTON WINEMAKERS STUDIO

BEAUX FRÈRES WINERY

Thank you Erik Ackerman and Barbara Banke for making this Oregon trip possible. And we are so pleased to work along side these Oregon winemakers and wineries.

The Pinot Noir and Chardonnay of the Pacific Northwest have been calling your name... And now is the time to heed that call! This wine-soaked Oregon trip is for three couples and features several VIP experiences set against the backdrop of the gorgeous Willamette Valley. Simply be the high bidder and the Nashville Wine Auction will assist with booking your trip and also provide a driver for your two tasting days!

Day One

Head to Willamette Valley Wine Country after arriving in Portland (PDX). Your first destination is WillaKenzie Estate, where they coined the moniker ‘Place Matters’- Oregonian answer to the French concept of terroir. This breathtaking estate is the perfect backdrop to enjoy your first glass of wine. The 420-acre estate enhanced by elevation and slope enable WillaKenzie to bottle multiple single-vineyard Pinot Noir. Consider yourselves “home” at WillaKenzie, as you nestle in the vines and get settled at the private residence of Jackson Family Wines Chairman and Proprietor, Barbara Banke. It’s a beautiful and magnificent place to end each day.

Dinner is on your own. May we suggest Cuvee in Carlton or Tina’s in Dundee. Reservations recommended.

Day Two

Rise and shine as your driver picks you up for your first VIP tasting at Gran Moraine Winery. Expansive vineyard views surround you in this rustic modern tasting room with floor to ceiling windows. The scenery will take your breath away as will the Burgundian style Pinot Noir and Chardonnay. The Yamhill Carlton AVA consists of ancient marine sedimentary-based soils coupled with the influence of Mediterranean weather patterns crafting these luscious wines.

Your next stop is Penner-Ash Wine Cellars where you'll enjoy a private tasting and lunch with legendary winemaker, Lynn Penner-Ash. The first woman winemaker of note in Oregon, Lynn is a master blender, skillfully working each lot to bring forth the truest expression of some of the region's most distinguished vineyards. Soak up Lynn's 20 years of winemaking knowledge as you enjoy a beautiful lunch at Penner-Ash estate. Did we mention the views? Equally spectacular and, yes, that is the snow-capped peak of Mount Hood in the background. Wow.

Dinner is on your own. May we suggest Recipe Neighborhood Kitchen in Newberg or The Jory at the Allison Inn & Spa. Reservations required.

Day Three

Start your day in Dundee Hills with a tasting at Dusky Goose. This limited-production Pinot Noir, skillfully crafted by Lynn Penner-Ash, features fruit exclusively from the Rambouillet Vineyard and a few select blocks from Dundee Hills.

And now for something different, your group will head to charming town of Carlton where you can enjoy tasting, strolling, shopping and lunch. Boasting of having the most tasting rooms per capital in the United States, there's no lack of delicious wines there! Begin at The Carlton Winemakers Studio, a historic wine cooperative, home to sixteen individual vintners who produce some of the regions most coveted wines under one innovative roof. You'll be treated to a winery tour followed by a private VIP seated tasting amongst the barrels of "The Hamacher Cellar." Such a fun experience! Lunch is on your own and may we suggest Barrel 47 or The Horse Radish. Shopping includes jams, chocolates, soaps and sundries plus boutique clothing choices and Bull Run Distillery for a change of pace.

Your final stop for the day is Beaux Frères Winery. Since 1991, The Beaux Frères philosophy is to produce a world-class Pinot Noir from small, well-balanced yields of healthy fruit. Stored in French oak for 10 to 12 months, Beaux Frères' non-manipulative, uncompromising methods guarantee a wine that is the most natural and authentic vineyard expression possible. Both Pinot Noirs and Chardonnay are delicious.

Day Four

Time to head back to Portland and ultimately Nashville. However, if you wish to extend your trip like “Portlandians” may we suggest The Nines, a luxury boutique hotel, located adjacent to Pioneer Square and the central business district in one of the country’s premiere walking cities. An ideal spot in Portland for launching your day’s visit.

In addition to having this amazing trip to look forward to, as the high bidder you’ll take six magnum of Penner-Ash Pinot Noir home with you tonight. Raise your paddle and whet your appetite for Willamette!

Please note: David Bragg Travel, Nashville Wine Auction’s preferred Travel Advisor, can assist with booking flights and making arrangements to extend your trip.

Restrictions: Itinerary subject to change based on availability at time of booking. Dates subject to availability. To be scheduled on a mutually agreeable date and confirmed by December 31, 2019. All guests must be 25 years old. Trip does not include airfare, driver or rental car. Trip restrictions apply, see Trip Guidelines in the Auction Rules and Reference section of the catalog.

What would we do without these fabulous women? Each of you add such value and grace to our organization and our community. Thank you Marjorie, Loren, Lisa, Lynne, Rahel, Wendy, and Elise.

Wine can be strong, austere, tannic, and forceful... But there's something about grace and elegance that can soften a bold wine and make it truly remarkable. Just like wine, women can often have that same effect! Strong wine collectors are impressive, and strong female wine collectors have a power and ease that's both graceful and impressive.

Lucky for 24 ladies, Nashville's crème de la crème women wine collectors have joined together to present a lengthy, luxurious lunch at the home of Marjorie Feltus Hawkins on Friday, May 17, 2019. There's truly no better hospitality out there. Join Loren Chumley, Lisa Maki, Rahel Klapheke Sloan, Lynne D. Teckman, Wendy Burch, and Elise Loehr as they share some of their favorite vintages and expertise. Every woman's favorite chef, Kevin Ramquist, will be serving up some impeccable dishes to complement what is sure to be the perfect afternoon. JIM & KIMBERLY LEWIS

Three cheers for Jim and Kimberly Lewis!

There's a chance you already know the story of PlumpJack Estate Winery. For those who may need a refresher, here's a little about this innovative Napa estate.

PlumpJack was inspired by one of Shakespeare's most memorable characters, Sir John "PlumpJack" Falstaff, a down-to-earth, fun-loving, irreverent character, rivaled only by his fierce loyalty to King Henry V, with whom he shares more than a few goblets of wine at the local tavern.

With this philosophy in mind and an opportunity to create their own winery, Lt. Governor Gavin Newsom and composer/philanthropist Gordon Getty acquired a century-old 42-acre vineyard in the Napa Valley. The duo vowed to celebrate the jovial spirit of the winery's namesake and also to pay tribute to the world-class vineyard by crafting high-quality, inviting wines.

With wines that reflect both the original vision of conviviality as well as the critic-worthy quality, PlumpJack is an innovator of both style and approachability, not an easy feat in Napa Valley.

PlumpJack Estate Winery Cabernet Sauvignon 2014 (10 bottles)

» The 2014 Cabernet Sauvignon Estate has a dense ruby/purple color, but not nearly the concentration of 2013, but lovely fruit, sweet tannin and a precocious, seductive up-front appeal. It's medium to full-bodied and probably will drink well for 10-15 years. (93 RP)

KELLY FLEMING WINES

It's Kelly Fleming's first time to Pairings! Welcome and thank you for this great auction lot.

"Kelly Fleming's 2015 Cabernet Sauvignon is a total knock-out. Dazzling in its richness and intensity, the 2015 delivers serious flavor intensity while retaining its classic sense of structure and place. Crème de cassis, plum, lavender and licorice build into the unctuous, full-throttle finish. The 2015 is a tour de force from Kelly Fleming and her brilliant winemaker Rebecca George, not to mention one of the finest wines of the vintage. Don't miss it." - Antonio Galloni, VINOUS, 97 points

...Intrigued? Thought so. Only a few miles up the road in Calistoga on the eastern side of the valley sits one of the quaintest, most elegant and inviting properties in Napa. With some pretty renowned vineyards sitting nearby (Eisele Vineyard, Kenefick Ranch, and Hundred Acre's 'Few & Far Between' Vineyard), this stretch of Pickett Road in Calistoga makes stunning Cabernets. This idyllic pocket of land produces astounding Cabernet across every vintage, but Kelly Fleming's 2015 vintage might possibly be the very best to date.

Take it from us (and Antonio Galloni), this wine merits its own shelf in your cellar, not only because of its large format size. The fact that it's a double magnum is just icing on top of the already delicious cake.

TOM BLACK

We are grateful for the generosity of our friend Tom Black. These 3Ls are just the tip of the iceberg.

Black by Black. Those fortunate enough to have tasted it either got it from the man himself or from a charity wine event. It's highly coveted, rarely seen, and definitely worth the buzz. It's a standout in blind tastings.

Black by Black is inspired by a Nashville Wine Auction hero and 2018 l'Eté du Vin chair, Tom Black, and the L.A. Times Winemaker of the Year, Jim Clendenen from Au Bon Climat Winery. An avid donor for many years, Tom decided to begin production on Black by Black in 2001 with the intent of donating it strictly to charities, including Nashville Wine Auction. And let us tell you, it's good juice. Jim selects only the finest grapes from their 300 acre ranch in Santa Barbara County to create a special meritage wine that has won several blind tastings and been scored a perfect 100 points. This wine is a combination of California Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, and Petit Verdot and produces a bold and balanced red wine. Very few cases are produced (especially in 3L format) and are presently available to the public only at charity auctions. This lot is incredibly special as it includes three superb vintages (2006, 2007, and 2008) in large format. It's a truly unique opportunity to take home this sought-after wine... Capitalize on it, y'all.

According to our good friend Tom, "The Nashville Wine Auction gave me an outlet to share my passion with other people. The bottle of wine is a certain size; it wasn't designed for one person to drink by his or herself. It was made that size so it could be shared. That's what we do at the wine auction... We share."

PEAY VINEYARDS

Welcome to Pairings Peay! Thank you for this special donation.

Your next trip to Sonoma requires a slight journey up the coast, but trust us, it's well worth the trip. You can tote five of your favorite friends (three couples) up to Annapolis, CA for an exclusive tour and tasting at Peay Vineyards with Nick Peay. Start making eye contact and giving signals with your friends across the room right now, this lot is going to go FAST.

Give the winery a Google, it's truly one of the most beautiful vineyard sites, located only four miles from the Pacific Ocean. The views alone warrant a paddle raise, but the wines themselves are what will have you leaping out of your seat to bid.

When the Peay brothers went on the hunt for the perfect land along the California coast, they knew what they wanted: a cold, marginal spot that would force grapes into an excruciatingly slow growing season. They discovered a parcel on the remote Sonoma coast just as that slice of the state was transforming from post-timber backwater to ground zero for Pinot Noir. Before Nick and Andy bought the 80-acre property in 1996, it merely bore the faint traces of a few fruit trees and sheep that once roamed its chilly pastures.

And boy, did it ever pay off. Their Pinot Noir and Syrah have rapidly become benchmarks, to say nothing of their Chard and Rhône-style whites. Peay wine is of such distinct character and quality, a testament to the vision and talents involved.

To make things sweeter, each couple will go home TONIGHT with a magnum of both Peay's Estate Pinot Noir and Chardonnay.

JIM & KIMBERLY LEWIS

And a fourth... Hip Hip Hooray!

If a wine ever deserved to be called “racy,” it’s definitely the Lewis Cellars Reserve Cab... For several reasons. Consider the fact that Randy Lewis used to be an Indy Car driver, it’ll put a whole new meaning on the word. Randy’s second career wasn’t solidified until he tore into a wall at 220 mph during a qualifying trial at the Indianapolis 500 in 1991. Fortunately, and rather amazingly, he walked away from this crash nearly unharmed. The “impact” of this crash was a realization to seriously pursue his passion for wine. Randy and his wife Debbie started Lewis Cellars in 1992. They are truly “Driven... To create world-class wines.” Along with their son, Dennis, they are literally hands-on in every aspect of vineyard management, winemaking, sales and distribution.

They thrive on the challenges and the relationships cultivated in the process. Over the years, their wines have earned critical acclaim both in the press and have been served at the White House.

The Lewis Cellars Reserve Cabernets are rich and intense, and the 2000 and 2002 vintage are perfect examples of the racy wines we mentioned earlier. It’s a race to bid on this case, don’t come in last!

FRIAS FAMILY VINEYARD

Welcome to Pairings Frias Family. We're so glad you came!

Owned and operated by Manny and Maria Frias and their family, FRIAS is one of the original Hispanic owned wineries within the Napa Valley. Manny grew up in San Francisco and fell in love with the Napa Valley during tasting trips in the 1960s, back when Cabernet Sauvignon was only a few dollars per bottle! Finally in 1977 (along with his father) Manny was able to purchase 100 acres on Spring Mountain above the town of St. Helena. The timing and circumstances for this purchase were favorable - they sold three properties in San Francisco and paid the owner $1000/acre.

Second generation brothers Fernando and Manny Jr. have taken over operations from their father and bring a special enthusiasm and creativity to the brand. Both have put significant effort into not only helping oversee their vineyards and working on harvest activities, but also promoting and selling their amazing wine.

Prado was named in tribute to Manny's wife Maria - Prado is her maiden name which means "meadows" in Spanish. This wine was sourced from a premium vineyard in Oakville, not far from Screaming Eagle. This lot contains not only a vertical of Prado's recent releases but also a private tasting for six with Fernando and Manny along with lunch at an iconic Napa restaurant.
