GRAND CRU JADOT TASTING

An illustrious Burgundian gem at a prestigious Nashville eatery? Sign us up! Well, sign yourself up!

Just 32 lucky winners will have the chance to taste through the Grand Crus of none other than Louis Jadot at the ever incredible 404 Kitchen on Saturday, March 14, 2020.

In Burgundy's Côte d'Or, where the integrity of the producer is more important than vineyard, Maison Louis Jadot is one of the most trusted and esteemed. A l'Eté du Vin Guest of Honor in 1995 and 2008, this distinguished producer has a special place in our hearts, as does Matt Bolus of 404 Kitchen. We consider this pairing a match made in heaven!

Start the evening with 2007 Taittinger bubbles, the perfect way to kick off the festivities. The theme for the evening? A 2005 versus 2006 comparison tasting. And to make this deal even sweeter, you'll finish off with Sauternes of course! 1986 Yquem to be specific.

We are so proud of the opportunities we offer our beloved wine community, so we hope you will take advantage of this one. Sign up, sign up! You won't regret it.

FUN-FILLED, RUDD-FILLED EVENING

Rudd's Oakville Estate is considered one of the best places on earth to grow Cabernet Sauvignon, and coincidentally, Sam Lewis and Mona Hart's patio is considered one of the best places on earth to drink it!

Sam and Mona cordially invite 60 lucky guests to their amazing home on Friday, September 20, 2019 for a fun-filled, Rudd-filled evening. They will be opening an 18 Liter of 2003 Rudd Cabernet Sauvignon!

The last in a series of volcanic landslides created a small oasis of land in Napa, a strip of land that Leslie Rudd was fortunate enough to procure in 1996. The soil is iron-rich, creating a structure and complexity that is as stunning as it is unique.

» This wine's reddish/brown label is the color of the rustic, volcanic, rocky soils found in this part of the Oakville Corridor. Composed of 79% Cabernet Sauvignon, 12% Petit Verdot, 3% Cabernet Franc, 3% Merlot and 3% Malbec, it boasts an opaque purple color along with a sumptuous bouquet of charcoal, scorched earth (reminiscent of Haut Brion), and intense black and blue fruits. Rich, opulent and full-bodied, this 2003 is performing even better than it did early on. (RP 95)

A seriously stunning wine, a seriously impressive large format bottle, and a seriously picturesque patio are the perfect ingredients for the perfect September evening. Add to that the seriously talented Chef Kevin Ramquist of the Unicorn Nashville providing the hors d'oeuvres... Don't miss this party!

COVETED DOUBLE MAGNUM OF BLACK BY BLACK

Black by Black. Those fortunate enough to have tasted it either got it from the man himself or from a charity wine event. It's highly coveted, a standout in blind tastings, and definitely worth the buzz.

Black by Black is inspired by 2018 l'Été du Vin chair, Tom Black, and the L.A. Times Winemaker of the Year, Jim Clendenen from Au Bon Climat Winery. An avid donor for many years, Tom decided to begin production on Black by Black in 2001 with the intent of donating it strictly to charities, including Nashville Wine Auction. And let us tell you, it's good juice.

Jim selects only the finest grapes from their 300 acre ranch in Santa Barbara County to create a special meritage wine that has won several blind tastings and been scored a perfect 100 points. This wine is a combination of California Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, and Petit Verdot and produces a bold and balanced red wine.

Very few cases are produced (especially in 3L format) and are presently available to the public only at charity auctions. This lot is a truly unique opportunity to take home this sought-after wine... Capitalize on it, y'all.
