LIVE AUCTION

HARVEY & ELISE CROUCH

PAM & STEVE TAYLOR

Thanks to Elise, Harvey, Pam, and Steve we're starting our Pairings Live Auction off right – with Champagne!

If you're like us, you live by the firm belief that it's impossible to kick off a celebration without Champagne. It's the Golden Rule of liquids, parties, and life. That's why we're starting Pairings with a lot that is chock full of some of the most incredible non-vintage bubbles out there. Now we can officially begin tonight's festivities!

Did you know, though, that not everyone had quite the same affinity for the golden liquid? In fact, winemakers way back before the 1600s were appalled to find bubbles in their bottles, an unintended consequence of incomplete fermentation brought on by early frosts, followed by a secondary fermentation when temperatures climbed in the spring. We've come to appreciate that fizz, a deserved estimation for sure.

From grower to Krug to Ruinart to Veuve, this lot has ten bottles and two magnums of some of the illusive region's best growers. These NV gems are your very own party starter. Let's all raise our glasses along with our paddles and start this party with a POP!

ZD WINES

A special thanks to Brett and Natalie deLeuze of ZD Wines for this very special large format bottle of Cab. We are very grateful for your return to Pairings this year and for your generosity.

ZD Wines was founded in 1969 by aerospace engineers Norman deLeuze and Gino Zepponi, and took its name from the two owners' surname initials. Today, second and third generations of the deLeuze family carry on the winery's legacy of producing wines of quality, consistency, and style as originally envisioned by its founders.

This large format of Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon shows ZD's commitment to producing a powerful yet balanced wine highlighting the best vineyard in Napa Valley. And 2016 was a milestone vintage for the winery: 100% of the grapes were certified organic.

Each vineyard lot was hand harvested and fermented separately in small stainless steel open-top fermenters. Hand punchdowns during fermentation ensured a gentle extraction of color and tannin. Their hard work delivers a wine showing richness, balanced with silky tannins that embrace an incredibly long finish.

Luckily, you don't need to be a rocket scientist to raise your paddle and enjoy this out-of-this-world wine!

SPOTTSWOODE VINEYARD & WINERY

What a joy to have Lindy Novak back in Nashville sharing her time and her fabulous Spottswode wine. Many thanks.

Spottswode Estate so perfectly embodies family values and the idyllic winery dream. This iconic piece of Napa Valley history is located on the western edge of St. Helena and is home to the Novak family and their beloved grapes.

Today, daughters Beth and Lindy aspire to carry their parents' vision forward. Lindy says, "When you own a family winery like ours, the cellar is like a photo album, each vintage of our Spottswode Estate Cabernet is a picture of a year in our family's life, and a testament for our love of this place. This is why it has always been so important to us that our wines reflect who we are, and what we believe in."

This photo album... er, auction lot, generously donated tonight includes three bottles each of the following pieces of Spottswode history:

- Sauvignon Blanc 2018
Described as a complex wine with a balanced focus and intensity, full of citrus and spice with fresh acidity.
- Lydenhurst Cabernet Sauvignon 2016
An image of the pre-Prohibition stone winery building graces the label in homage to the original name of the property. This Cabernet offers depth, character and quality that we have come to expect!
- Estate Cabernet Sauvignon 2016
Robert Parker said, "Wow!" as he rated this wine 100 points. It is beautifully expressive and will keep improving in the cellar.

MOUNT VEEDER LOKOYA IN MAGNUM, TIMES TWO

This wine lot includes:

- Lokoya Winery Mount Veeder Cabernet Sauvignon 2000 (1.5L) (2 bottles)

JIM & KIMBERLY LEWIS

Kimberly and Jim have made a lasting impact on Nashville Wine Auction. Their wise leadership and significant wine donations have strengthened our organization. We are grateful.

Lokoya is famed as one of California's best Cabernet producers, and the pinnacle of their winemaking lies in Mount Veeder. They have one of the most beautiful estates in the Napa Valley, and their wines are truly reflective of their stunning surroundings. We at Nashville Wine Auction are certainly fanatics of this top tier producer. Their very (VERY) limited-production wines are 100% Cabernet Sauvignon, fermented with native yeast, and bottled unfiltered and unfiltered, resulting in the purest expression of place.

Fun fact about winemaker Chris Carpenter, he got into wine by bartending in Chicago to supplement his first job. To this day, he still bartends at the Rutherford Grill (on Fridays) where he has for over twenty years!

This 2000 vintage (Carpenter's first year at Lokoya) deeply encapsulates the complexity of Mount Veeder, a true gem amongst gems. It is unquestionably one of Napa's leading wines, and we have the 2000 in magnum format times two. That's right, two magnums of Napa's finest, ready to make their way straight to you. All you have to do is keep your arm in the air long enough to win. Think you're up for the challenge?

CADE ESTATE WINERY
ODETTE ESTATE WINERY
PLUMPJACK ESTATE WINERY
MICHAEL & CINDEE GOLD

Welcome back to Nashville John Conover! These highly rated wines are going to make someone very happy. Special thanks to Cindee and Michael Gold for their addition to this lot.

Everybody loves a good story whether it be in the form of novels, plays, or movies. With this in mind, Gavin Newsom, Gordon Getty, and John Conover wanted to unite storytelling with their passion for wine. So they looked to stories and fables to name their three wineries.

- The name PlumpJack is derived from one of Shakespeare's characters, Sir John PlumpJack Falstaff. PlumpJack was a high-spirited and down-to-earth wine lover that said, If wine and sugar be a fault, God help the wicked.
- Similar to PlumpJack, CADE's name also can be traced back to Shakespeare. The term cade was used to describe wine casks in Elizabethan times.
- In addition to appearing in works by Shakespeare, Proust, and Tchaikovsky, Odette was the name of a judge from the 1976 Paris Wine Tasting. The fictional characters and the wine judge alike encapsulate femininity, strength, and power – the three values on which Odette was founded.

Now is your chance create your own story with these magnificent wines. This auction lot offers a magnum from the 2016 vintage of each estate as well as two bottles of the coveted PlumpJack Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon which earned a 100 point rating from Robert Parker's The Wine Advocate!

Bid on this lot make the wines of PlumpJack, CADE, and Odette a part of your story!

SENSES WINES

It's our first year to experience Senses Wines at Pairings. Welcome to our wine-crazy club!

A sexy wine will arrest your senses on every level. The color will be as rich and mesmerizing as the eyes of your lover, and just as easy to lose yourself in. The aroma, an intoxicant in and of itself, will seem to simultaneously effuse a comfortable familiarity, as well as an exciting sense of the unknown. On the palate, the wine will be so rich, decadent, and hedonistic that you feel a very real fear of being overwhelmed. A sexy wine must make you feel as though you have fallen in love for the first time.

~Patrick Anderson on the WineSpeed blog

Buckle up, bidders! We aim to overwhelm your Senses with this sexy offering from Senses wines.

Senses Wines is the dream of three childhood friends, Chris, Max and Myles. They partner with critically acclaimed winemaker, Thomas Rivers Brown, to produce world-class wines from renowned vineyards and, since founding in 2011, Senses production has grown to include many coveted vineyard sites throughout northern California.

MCM88 Russian River Valley Pinot Noir

Fruit was sourced from the famed vineyard formerly known as Keefer Ranch (now Perry Ranch), and the block originally farmed by Kosta Browne. MCM stands for Max, Chris and Myles and doubles for the Roman numerals of 1900, which when added to '88 marks the founders birth year: 1988.

Terra de Promissio Pinot Noir

Receiving more than 20 90+ point scores for wines from this vineyard, Terra de Promissio is now the most vineyard designated Pinot Noir producing vineyard in Sonoma County. Thomas Rivers Brown has made the most of it!

B.A. Thieriot Vineyard Chardonnay

This vineyard was planted by the late Warren Dutton of Dutton Ranch. Year after year it has consistently produced high scoring wines and is known to be one of the premiere vineyards in Sonoma. Robert Parker gave this particular wine 94 points... Very provocative indeed!

Its time to come to your Senses and raise your paddle for three sexy large format wines... and feel as though you have fallen in love for the first time.

While most of the latter half of the 2005 growing season was stressed from a drought, the rain gods delivered at the perfect moment, giving proper nourishment that gave way to beautiful fruit. Daily heat then combined with the cool nights that the rain brought in allowing the grapes to be harvested under the most ideal conditions. If you've had a 2005 from any producer, you know it's elegant, balanced, and full of fruit. This dinner affords the chance to drink both Banks, you'll really get a feel of just how great 2005 was in Bordeaux!

BEST PRACTICES FOR BORDEAUX

This wine lot includes:

- Château Latour 1999 (1.5L)
- Château Lynch-Bages 1996 (1.5L)
- Château Gruaud-Larose 1996 (1.5L)

FRANK & AMY GARRISON

JIM & KIMBERLY LEWIS

Thank you for these extra special bottles of Bordeaux Amy, Frank, Kimberly, and Jim.

The best way to drink Bordeaux? Surrounded by good company, paired with your favorite meal, and out of magnum. In that order of importance.

Gruaud-Larose and Lynch-Bages from the 1996 vintage and Latour from the 1999 vintage, all shining examples of why Bordeaux magnums are worth it. Parker even likens the '99 Latour to its highly regarded 1962 and 1971 vintages. These 20+ year old bottles will taste like spry teenagers and are perfect for an evening with that good company we referenced earlier. Raise your paddle for the right to brag about these mags.

Château Latour 1999 (1.5L)

Readers looking for a modern day version of Latour's magnificent 1962 or 1971 should check out the sensational 1999 Latour. It is a big, concentrated offering, exhibiting a dense ruby/purple color, and a classic nose of minerals, black currants, leather, and vanilla. The wine is long, ripe, and medium-bodied, with high levels of sweet tannin. This surprisingly full, concentrated 1999 should be drinkable in 5-6 years; it will last for three decades. (RP 94)

Château Lynch-Bages 1996 (1.5L)

This is much more open than the 1995. Offers aromas and flavors of currant, mint and spices. Full-bodied, soft and velvety, with a fruit finish. Starting to drink well now. (WS 92)

Château Gruaud-Larose 1996 (1.5L)

Dark ruby. Deep, brooding nose hints at dark plum, blackcurrant, coffee and lavender accented by cinnamon and nutmeg. Enters bright and fresh, then turns richer in the middle, with accessible plum, herb and coffee flavors persisting nicely on the peppery finish, which features chewy tannins. This is at once more herbal and more forward than the 1995. It's also better than I remember it, and although still quite young it offers plenty of appeal. The wine's harmonious acidity makes it seem lighter-bodied than it is. (ST 91)

ACKERMAN FAMILY VINEYARD

It's a privilege to have Lauren Ackerman with us at Pairings for the first time. Thank you Ackerman Family Vineyards for your support in the fight against cancer.

When Bob and Lauren Ackerman decided to find a little piece of heaven in Napa Valley it was a horse, not grape vines, that caught their attention. Bob discovered a charming 16 acre spread in Coombsville and thought Lauren, an accomplished rider, would love the horse that came with the place. Little did they know their journey would lead them into the wonderful world of winemaking.

In addition to a horse, the property also included 9 acres of vineyard. Bob embraced the idea that this very special AVA could produce amazing Cabernet Sauvignon. Today, the entire estate is certified organic and the Ackermans are completely invested in producing a wine designed for cellaring.

The 100% Cabernet Sauvignon wines are smooth, yet complex, with a deep berry body and a subtle spice, smoke, chocolate and black cherry finish. Due to the more temperate location in the southeastern part of Napa Valley, the wines have a moderate level of acidity which enables them to easily pair with food. Barrel aged for two years in new French Oak and then bottle aged for an additional two years before release, these wines are patiently curated.

So raise your paddle and give thanks to that horse, because tonight you can take home three amazing magnum of Ackerman Family Vineyard's luscious Cabs!

KAYNE PRIME

We were thrilled when Kayne Prime said YES to hosting us for this Saturday afternoon tradition. Thanks to Pam and Steve for the fine wine!

We dare you to think of a greater duo than Chardonnay and Pinot Noir. Go ahead... we'll wait.

Like the great pairings of the world (and the great Pairings event you are attending), this dynamic duo is as simpatico as peanut butter and jelly or Champagne and French fries. We can think of no better way to celebrate these two classic varietals, than a Saturday lunch showcasing their beauty, complexity, and overall yumminess.

Experiencing the many faces of Chardonnay and Pinot Noir with a fabulous Saturday lunch will be 34 fast-acting and thirsty bidders. This extravaganza takes place on Saturday, May 30, 2020 at Kayne Prime with old and new world wines from the cellar of Pam and Steve Taylor.

Without a doubt, the wines listed below will be a huge hit. We're quite certain the food will be also be amazing, as we lined up one of our favorite chefs to do the job. Chef Andrew Whitney brings years of diverse culinary experience to chef-chic boutique restaurant, Kayne Prime. There he focuses on dishes that are a celebration of the now, featuring modern interpretations of the classics in the form of market-driven, fresh, farm-to-table creations. And he also has partnered with Nashville Wine Auction for many wine dinners, Private Vintner Dinners, and is currently featured at this year's Pairings Dinner. See? Andrew is definitely one of our "favorites," and after this event he's sure to be one of yours too!

CHRIS & RACHEL MCCALL

Rachel and Chris continue to support our mission by giving generously. Thank you for the Herman Story! It's a treat.

Anyone who has met Russell P. From, winemaker and sole employee of Herman Story Wines, can honestly say they've met one of the most unique humans making wine today. Thank heavens the McCalls are big fans of the man from Paso Robles... And also generous!

Well received and highly scored by Wine Advocate, Wine Spectator and The Rhône Report for the past several years, Herman Story Wines (named after Russell's grandfather) are hard to come by. Most bottles are gobbled up by eager wine club members - which is closed by the way - so the rest of you have to wait to get on the list or score the bottles at auction!

Herman Story wine labels reach out and grab you, just like the wine inside the bottle and Russell's quirky character. His approach, try to get everything out of every vintage, push it to the limits without going over the top, and take a very minimalistic approach... keeping it real, keeping it natural.

Check out this exclusive assortment of Herman Story's latest and greatest!

To our Co-Chairs tonight, we say SALUTE! Jennifer and John really know how to throw a party! Thank you for your hard work, and for these Alpha Omega beauties.

Twelve bottles of Cabernet Sauvignon of this caliber don't come along every day. Thanks to event chairs John and Jennifer Steele, we offer this collection of some of the best wines Alpha Omega produces from Napa's most coveted vineyards.

This lot features three bottles each of four different vineyard Cabs. Winemaker Jean Hoefliger called 2014 a dream vintage, and these immaculate bottles are yours so you can find out if she's correct!

Stagecoach Vineyard

High on Atlas Peak, this vineyard uses its rocky, volcanic terroir with perfect growing conditions for hillside fruit to create extracted yet well-balanced wines.

Beckstoffer Georges III Vineyard

You know who loves this vintage from this famed vineyard? Robert Parker and Antonio Galloni! You will too when the silky tannins and layered richness meet your palate.

Sunshine Valley Vineyard

Bold, succulent and racy to the core, the 2014 exudes richness to match its flashy, upfront personality. All the elements fall into place in this striking, effortless Cabernet Sauvignon.

Beckstoffer Missouri Hopper Vineyard

This wine is plush, deep and generous, all qualities that make it a highly inviting wine to drink pretty much upon release. Jean outdid himself on this super expressive Cab.

JONATA

THE HILT ESTATE

CHEF ANDY LITTLE

Kristen and Brian are pillars in our organization – serving on the board, leading committees, offering expert advice, hosting dinners, chairing events and donating fantastic wine. Thank you for your continual support.

Here's a special treat for all of you wine explorers: Dinner with JONATA (pronounced ho-nada) wines at the lovely home of Brian & Kristen Junghans (pronounced young-hans). While the name JONATA may be new to you, their wines have been earning rave reviews from Antonio Galloni, Jeb Dunnuck, Wine Advocate, and more for years. The JONATA wines featured at this dinner have earned ratings of 93 points to 100 points.

Of the 2015 La Sangre de JONATA Syrah, Jeb Dunnuck says, "Even better than the crazy-good 2007, the 2015 La Sangre de JONATA is sheer perfection in a glass and up with the finest Syrahs ever made in California! Checking in as a blend of 97% Syrah and 3% Viognier, aged in barrel, its saturated purple color is followed by out of this world aromatics black raspberries, smoked earth, graphite, game, violets and freshly crushed rock-like minerality. Possessing huge concentration, building tannin, and yet a seamless, ethereally pure texture, it needs 2-4 years of bottle age to become approachable. It is unquestionably the finest vintage for this cuvée today and hats off to the team at Jonata for this beauty!"

Located in Santa Barbara's Ballard Canyon, JONATA is one of a new breed of producers throughout the world who are thriving with a non-traditional amalgam of varietals and blends. With a commitment to Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, and Syrah, and informed by sustainable viticulture and cutting-edge winemaking, the wines of JONATA represent an emerging quality movement in responsible California winegrowing.

When deciding on what chef to call upon for this red-heavy dinner, we looked no further than James Beard semifinalist, Andy Little. With Chef Little's storytelling approach to food, and the varietals JONATA brings to the table, we're sure this dinner will leave your taste buds begging for more.

This wine experience will be sold to nine couples, so grab your date and Buy-A-Spot! Taking place on Saturday, November 14, 2020, you'll love this opportunity to explore Santa Barbara's JONATA wines (and their sister winery, The Hilt Estate), and see what the hubbub (pronounced hub-bub) is about!

THE KANZLER COMPARISON: DIVING DEEP INTO SONOMA PINOT NOIR

This trip is for up to 8 guests and includes:

- 3-night stay Kanzler Vineyards vacation house for up to 8 guests
- Tasting and tour at Kanzler Vineyards
- Tasting and tour at Kosta Browne Winery
- Tasting and paired lunch at Lynmar Estate
- Driver provided for one day of touring

KANZLER VINEYARDS

KOSTA BROWNE

LYNMAR ESTATE

This is year two for Breana and Alex at Pairings. We are honored to have you partner with us in our mission to fund the fight against cancer.

The Kanzler Estate Vineyard is the source of over 60 wines rated 90 - 98 points by Wine Spectator. Win this trip and your group of eight will taste the renowned vineyard through the lens of three masterful wineries – Kosta Browne, Lynmar Estate, and Kanzler Vineyards - that all source grapes from this exceptional plot of land. Compare and contrast their stylistic approaches and in the process, you'll understand and enjoy Pinot Noir more deeply than ever before.

Your accommodations for two nights are in the enchanting west hills of Sonoma County at the beautiful Kanzler Farm Stay, a luxurious vacation house with 360-degree vineyard views. This private 20-acre estate is just a few minutes' drive from charming downtown Sebastopol and is off the beaten path, yet at the center of Pinot Noir-lover heaven in the Russian River Valley.

The vacation house exudes comfortable sophistication and amenities include pool, hot tub, outdoor fire-pit lounge, full kitchen, multiple seating areas, sun deck, and 4 bedrooms with en suite baths. Gracious touches—such as bathrobes and slippers—abound. You'll have the entire property to yourselves for morning vineyard walks and evening stargazing.

Day One

Start your day exploring the working Kanzler Estate Vineyard with a Kanzler family member and discover the factors that make it a jewel of the Russian River Valley. Geek out over Goldridge soil, fog-laced weather patterns, organic farming practices, complex pruning techniques, and three Pinot Noir clones. Find out why this lucky location allows grapes to hang longer on the vine, and bottles to age longer in the cellar. Then, revel in an intimate European-style tasting of truly small-lot, handcrafted Kanzler wines—including the very coveted Estate Reserve Pinot Noir. You'll also get the inside story on why and how winemakers share vineyards.

Sebastopol is where you'll get some lunch recommendations, and where you can stroll down adorable Main Street visiting shops that sell handmade soap, rocks and gems, medicinal herbs, musical instruments, and crafts by local artisans.

Cap the afternoon off with a visit to the revered Kosta Browne Winery in their sleek Sebastopol digs for a VIP tour and tasting. Kosta Browne first caught the wine world's attention with a bottling of Kanzler Vineyard fruit which became the highest-rated American Pinot Noir. The winery has been crafting exceptional and sought-after wines from this vineyard ever since. You'll taste how a vineyard is both fundamentally the same yet stirringly different in the hands of different winemakers. Kosta Browne's Kanzler Pinot Noir is highly allocated and not available to taste on a typical tour, so enjoy the exclusive access! Taste more from the impressive KB lineup and peek behind the winemaking scenes.

Dinner is up to you. Head to one of the region's exquisite restaurants or stay in and cook a feast in the vineyard house's gourmet kitchen. (Or, if you'd rather relax while a private chef whips up something fabulous, we can refer some local geniuses.)

Before you tuck into the lusciously comfortable beds, be sure to sip wine and stargaze from the hot tub.

Day Two

In the morning, we suggest a walk in the redwoods or at the beach, and treats from one of the extraordinary local bakeries such as Pascaline or Wildflour.

Next on the agenda is an afternoon visit to the fabled Lynmar Estate nearby. Soak up the beautiful flower and culinary gardens and enjoy a delectable farm-to-table lunch with the Lynmar Wine and Food Pairing Experience. This three-course meal is made from estate-grown and locally sourced ingredients. Thoughtful wine pairings will include a critically acclaimed interpretation of the Kanzler Vineyard, as well as Pinot Noir and Chardonnay grown on Lynmar's own estate.

Head back to Kanzler and bliss out with a vineyard walk, some time by the pool, and board games or a novel in the reading nook. For dinner we suggest putting together the ultimate charcuterie board with locally made goodies from nearby shops like Bohemian Creamery—their handmade cheese tasting is a hidden gem, and a must!

Finish the day with a glass of Pinot at the pergola on the north side of the estate, where sunsets cast magic across the vineyard.

Day Three

Day three is a blank canvas, so why not take the opportunity to explore another part of Sonoma, perhaps Healdsburg, Dry Creek Valley, or Kenwood? Go with suggestions from Nashville Wine Auction or choose your own adventure. Either way, you'll return to Nashville a bonafide Pinot Noir geek, able to answer some of wine's most alluring mysteries: What makes a vineyard sought after? And what makes a winery's style unique? How many bottles will fit in a suitcase?

Raise your paddle high and dive deep into the land, the craftsmanship, the flavors, and the mystery of exceptional Pinot Noir.

Please note: David Bragg Travel, Nashville Wine Auction's preferred Travel Advisor, can assist with booking flights and making arrangements to extend your trip.

Restrictions: To be scheduled on a mutually agreeable date. Itinerary subject to change based on availability at time of booking. Trip does not include airfare or rental car. Trip restrictions apply, see Trip Guidelines in the Auction Rules and Reference section of the catalog.

ROY ESTATE

Thank you Roy Estate for joining us in Nashville. It's a privilege to know you and enjoy your beautiful wines together.

After Charles and Shirley Roy purchased their property (formerly the private home of golfer, Johnny Miller) in the late '90s, Roy Estates learned of the destiny. As soon as Helen Turley visited the property situated at the base of Atlas Peak she suggested they plant a vineyard – and they did! The vineyard is perfectly suited for Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Petit Verdot. Since 2005, storied winemaker, Phillipe Melka, has crafted wines from those illustrious grapes, revealing the voice of the vineyard.

The panoramic property has a creek that divides the parcel akin to the Right Bank and Left Bank in Bordeaux. Its unique microclimate features even growing conditions that combine the powerful, volcanic soil from one side of the creek and plush, loamy soils from the other, to create a beautifully balanced Bordeaux style that really sings. Melka coaxes an exceptional wine from those hillsides that have silky notes of bright blue and black fruit that dance on the palette. Vinous' Antonio Galloni has described this 93+ point wine as defining the style of the vintage. It is powerful yet wrapped in nuance that will have you craving another sip.

If you didn't get a chance to taste this beautiful wine at the Collectors' Showcase, now is your chance to acquire a Roy Estate's coveted Mr. Evans Red. You'll also be invited visit the Roy Estate for an intimate tasting for six wine lovers. Grab your friends and get your paddles up to secure this very exclusive experience and a wine that will not disappoint.

It seems SeaDream is just a part of the family now. So many satisfied customers tell us – “Don’t stop offering this fantastic trip!”

On embarkation we were given glasses of champagne and complimentary neck and shoulder massages... And that was just the beginning of a week of absolute pampering and luxury! We loved it so much, we booked another! ~ Kristen & Brian Junghans

Adventure by day, luxury by night. This 7-night yachting experience for two sailing the azure, crystalline waters of the Caribbean aboard a chic and stylish SeaDream mega-yacht perfects the balance of casual comfort and refined elegance.

Sail from St. Thomas, San Juan, St. Martin, and more to enjoy the best spots in the Caribbean aboard a yacht that feels like your own. Capture the French ambiance of St. Barths, explore the national park of St. John, or anchor off the golden sand beaches of the Grenadines. With only 56 staterooms and 95 award-winning crew to pamper you, your experience will be intimate and luxurious. You can dine alfresco with a different backdrop each night or in the elegantly appointed dining salon, experiencing five-star cuisine with fine wine from SeaDream’s wine cellar. After dinner, dance the night away at the “Top of the Yacht” bar, watch a starlit film or performance on the pool deck, or sleep under a canopy of stars in an unspoiled night sky.

JOHN & JENNIFER STEELE

Our thanks go out again to Jen and John for sharing this fine wine.

When passion meets inspiration, an obsession is born. ~Anonymous

Sea Smoke owner, Bob Davids, is obsessed with making California Grand Cru Pinot Noir. He has succeeded, as Sea Smoke is a darling of the critics and regarded as one of the Central Coast's cult Pinot Noir producers.

The obsession with Pinot Noir has its roots –literally and figuratively –in the estate vineyard and becomes evident when examining how they farm. Every one of the vines receives individual care and handling from the vineyard crew at least eight times a year—every single vine. Since the vineyard will hopefully outlast us all, they decided to be good stewards of the land: Sea Smoke has been farming sustainably for over a decade, and in 2013 went beyond organic and began farming the entire vineyard biodynamically.

This obsession results in wines that are lush, elegant, and expressive. However, they are also made in limited quantities and only available from the mailing list. Thanks to the generosity of John and Jennifer Steele, you can skip the waiting and take home a case of Sea Smoke tonight. Commence obsessing in 3... 2... 1...

Valerie and Adam are gifted at curating and hosting amazing wine dinners. Their dedication is unending. Thank you for your support. And, boy are we glad E3 Chophouse has opened its doors in Hillsboro Village. Thank you for your generous participation in our cause.

There are many variables to consider when marketing a wine. Perhaps the most important consideration... What to name it! Catchy names can be fun and flirty, but it takes a confident winemaker to put their own name right on the bottle.

This "It's All In the Name" dinner highlights eight talented winemakers and their namesake juice. On Friday, June 26, 2020 at E3 Chophouse, your group of eight will be hosted by Adam and Valerie Landa for an amazing dinner featuring some of the most well-known wine producers from the west coast.

You'll drink Pride, Turley, Pott, Greer, Fairchild, Piper, Mondavi, and Schrader, side by side paired with the mouthwatering menu at Nashville's hottest new steakhouse. E3 Chophouse is a high end, service-driven, ranch-to-restaurant experience, newly opened in 2019. Their all-natural, antibiotic and hormone-free E3 Black Angus beef comes straight from the family-owned E3 Ranch, located in Fort Scott, Kansas.

TOM BLACK

How do we say thanks to Tom for all he does for Nashville Wine Auction. He has been a loyal contributor for decades. Our organization has benefited from his leadership, knowledge, generosity, and faithfulness. Thank you for caring, Tom!

"The Nashville Wine Auction gave me an outlet to share my passion with other people. The bottle of wine is a certain size; it wasn't designed for one person to drink by his or herself. It was made that size so it could be shared. That's what we do at the wine auction... We share." ~ Tom Black

Black by Black. Those fortunate enough to have tasted it either got it from the man himself or from a charity wine event. It's highly coveted, rarely seen, and definitely worth the buzz.

Black by Black is inspired by 2018 l'Été du Vin chair, Tom Black, and the L.A. Times Winemaker of the Year, Jim Clendenen from Au Bon Climat Winery. An avid donor for many years, Tom decided to begin production on Black by Black in 2001 with the intent of donating it strictly to charities. And let us tell you, it's good juice.

Jim selects only the finest grapes from their 300 acre ranch in Santa Barbara County to create a special meritage wine that has won several blind tastings and been scored a perfect 100 points. This wine is a combination of Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, and Petit Verdot and produces a bold and balanced red wine. Very few cases are produced (especially in 3L format) and are presently available to the public only at charity auctions. This lot is incredibly special as it includes four superb vintages in large format. It's a truly unique opportunity to take home this sought-after wine... Capitalize on it, y'all.
