A FABULOUS REEVE-NING OF WINE AND FOOD

Listen up Pairings people! Your new Nashville Wine Auction CEO, Loren Chumley, and her husband Scott Peterson invite you to their beautiful home for a fabulous dinner celebrating Reeve Wines! They're bringing in Kelly and Noah Dorrance, the husband-and-wife collaborative behind Reeve, for the evening's festivities! Plus, they've secured Chef Kevin Ramquist to prepare the perfectly paired cuisine.

We've only got 20 seats available, so check your calendars for Saturday, June 18, 2022 and lock in your spot now!

Here's a little more about Reeve Wines. In 2015 Kelly and Noah launched Reeve Wines on a wild and rolling hillside estate property in Healdsburg, California, as an exploration of Noah's love for California wines with verve and intensity, produced from land that tells a story. What began as a creative outlet to complement the runaway success of Banshee Wines, the wine label Noah started with friends in 2009, soon grew to be something so singular it refused to be relegated to a side project.

Noah spearheads Reeve's winemaking and production with the support of talented winemakers Ross Cobb (Cobb Wines, Hirsch, Flowers, Williams Selyem) and Katy Wilson (LaRue, Kamen, Flowers), forming a powerhouse combination of experience, passion, and ideas. Kelly is the mastermind behind the Reeve estate's modern-rustic aesthetic and elevated-yet-casual hospitality program. Their small-production wines are honest and true to the vineyards and soils from which they grow, and the cool climates in which they ripen just to the edge of tension. They aim to dig deeper into the potential of California's noble hillside Pinot Noir and Chardonnay plantings in the Anderson Valley, Mendocino County and Sonoma Coast's diverse terroirs—and to experiment with winemaking techniques and lesser-known varietals, with a particular penchant for Italian grapes like Sangiovese, and soon Falanghina, the newly-grafted addition to Reeve's growing acreage of estate vineyards.

In addition to the scrumptious wine and food, there have been rumblings that Scott will be opening his legendary “Bourbon Drawer” and Loren will be pulling out the bubbles for dessert. Raise your paddle for what’s bound to be a fabulous Reeve-ning!

Reeve Wines featured at dinner include:

- Rosé of Pinot Noir 2021
- Prism Riesling 2021
- Mirama Chardonnay 2020
- Tanbark Pinot Noir 2019
- Kiser Vineyard Pinot Noir 2019

Auction Rules & Reference

Silent Auction

Because Nashville Wine Auction uses Mobile Bidding for the Silent Auction, you will be able to start bidding at noon on Tuesday, February 22, 2022. At that time, guests who have provided a cell phone number will receive a text message containing a personal bidding link. If you do not pre-register your cell phone number, you will receive your bidding text when you check in at l'Eté du Vin. You can call the Nashville Wine Auction office at (615) 329-1760 and provide your cell phone number.

Please bring a fully charged smart phone or tablet (with WiFi capability) to the event. A charging station will be available to recharge your device if necessary. Volunteers will also be available to help you examine the lots and place your bids.

All Silent Auction lots close automatically at 8:00 pm on February 25.

At the time of closing, all bids are final. All winning bidders are responsible for payment. After visiting Check Out, winning bidders can collect their winnings at Pick Up at the conclusion of the Live Auction.

Mobile Bidding

All bidding for the Silent Auction will take place on your smart phone. You will be able to browse lots, place bids and even get alerts if someone outbids you. No more running back to the auction tables to check on your bids, now you can spend more time enjoying a glass of wine and socializing with your friends.

How Do I Bid?

1. Click on the link found in your automated text message. Do not share this link, it is tied to your bid number and account!
2. Browse the auction lots by scrolling, or use search to locate auction items by lot number or keyword. You can click the three line icon in the upper left to sort lots by category, or visit your auction activity by clicking Bids - Packages you have bid on.
3. Click on a listing to place bids and to see the description and photos, click on Details.

4. There are two types of bidding available:
 - Quickly bid the next available increment displayed by clicking the Bid button.
 - Click the Bid More button which allows you to either select a higher bid amount or select your maximum bid. If you choose to set a Max Bid, the system will automatically place bids on your behalf until your maximum bid is reached or until the auction closes. If the bid you enter is lower than the highest max bid on that lot, you will be prompted to enter a higher bid.
 - Watch lots. Are there some lots you just want to keep your eye on? No problem, just click star icon to see how high the bids go! Visit your Favorites page to see all of your starred lots.
5. For Multisale lots: Click on the Buy button on the package detail page and select the quantity you would like to purchase.
6. To make a donation: Click on the Raise Your Paddle button on your home screen and choose a pre-set amount or enter a custom amount you wish to donate.

What if Someone Out Bids Me?

1. If you are outbid, you will be notified via text message.
2. Keep an eye on your auction activity by clicking the Bids - Packages you have bid on under the three lined icon in the upper left of your screen.

How Do I Know If I Won?

1. Watch the official event time located on the upper left of your screen. As soon as the Silent Auction closes, the guest with the highest bid will win and receive notification via text.
2. On the Bids - Packages you have bid on screen (accessible from the three lined icon menu in the upper right) you can check your auction activity, including lots you have won.

Troubleshooting

Should you have any questions, encounter any difficulties or enter an incorrect bid, please locate a Mobile Bidding Support Team member in a burgundy shirt that can assist you.

Live Auction

Each Live Auction lot will be offered in catalog sequence. Any variation from the catalog description will be announced by the Auctioneer at the time the lot is offered. Please listen carefully as the Auctioneer presents various lots and explains the procedure for placing bids. The Auctioneer will announce each lot number, and bidding will commence at his/her discretion. Each lot will be sold to the highest bidder. Bidding will advance in increments decided by the Auctioneer. All sales are final.

Indication of a bid should be made by a positive display of your hand or numbered bidding paddle, and may be made directly to the Auctioneer or any of the bid spotters nearby.

Please note: Nose-scratching and earlobe pulling may be done with impunity. It is, however, unwise to frantically wave to your friend across the room while bidding is in progress!

While most lots are sold to the single highest bidder, we do offer specialty lots that operate on a different set of rules. These include:

Buy-A-Spot

Some of the lots in the Live Auction will be sold as Buy-A-Spot (formerly known as Dutch) auction lots. Unlike the individual bidding of a regular auction lot, a Buy-A-Spot works by elimination. The Auctioneer suggests an opening bid and anyone willing to pay that price stands up (everyone present may stand). As the price rises higher and higher, anyone willing to pay the new bid remains standing; others simply take their seats. This continues until the number of people standing matches the number of items available. Each bidder standing when the hammer falls receives one item, paying the last (highest) bid named. Please indicate to the Auctioneer if you wish more than one item by holding up the corresponding number of fingers before bidding closes.

Multisale Lots

Some of the lots in the Silent and Live Auctions will be sold at a pre-determined selling price. These lots are for attendance at "Specially Organized Events" in which a large number of spaces are available or for selling items that we have a number in inventory.

If you wish to purchase a spot using Mobile Bidding in the Silent Auction, simply click Buy on your mobile device and select your desired quantity.

These Special Event lots will be kept open for purchase throughout the Silent Auction. Often times, open spots will be offered in the Live Auction starting at the same set-price. Once introduced in the Live Auction, the price could increase depending on demand.

Conditions of Bidding and Lot Purchases

1. Lots may be added, amended or deleted by the published addenda to the catalog, by notice posted on the lot display, or by verbal announcement during the auction.
2. The Nashville Wine Auction will not be responsible or liable for the accuracy of the descriptions of the wines offered in the catalog or on bid sheets. Such information and notes about each lot are statements of opinion or references from published wine sources or experts. There is no warranty, expressed or implied, as to any sale lot's quality, value or suitability for any purpose whatsoever.
3. All wines and tangible merchandise are sold "As is, Where is." Wine and other tangible lots are on display and available for your examination. By bidding on any lot, you acknowledge that you have inspected the lot, and find it in satisfactory condition to warrant your bid.

Lots made up of trips, dinners or other intangible services are represented in good faith in the catalog. By bidding on a lot, you acknowledge that you have read the description of that lot, and find the description satisfactory to warrant your bid.

4. The Nashville Wine Auction makes every effort to maintain and store wine responsibly. When wine is received, it is stored in a temperature controlled cellar. It is carefully moved to the auction site in a temperature controlled vehicle. The Nashville Wine Auction is not responsible for the provenance of any wine or for the condition of its storage and handling before being placed in the possession of the Nashville Wine Auction.
5. Bids on lots will be accepted only from registered persons who have pre-registered their credit card and have been issued a current bidding number by the Nashville Wine Auction. Bidding methods and rules may vary for certain lots. This information will be given in the catalog, on the bid sheet or display, or by the Auctioneer. Bids may be rejected, if the stated requirements are not met by the bidder.
6. A live auction bid is only valid when it is recognized by the Auctioneer. At the word "Sold," the acknowledged bidder is deemed to have purchased the lot and thereupon assumes responsibility to pay the price announced by the Auctioneer. By participating in the Auction, a bidder agrees to pay the full purchase price for all lots recorded by auction personnel to his/her assigned bid number.
7. For each Live lot purchased, the buyer will be required to sign a form confirming the buyer's name and the lot's price directly after the lot has been sold. These confirmation forms will be brought to the bidder's assigned table. Therefore, it is necessary for each bidder to remain at his/her assigned table throughout the evening.
8. In case of a bid dispute in the Live Auction, either among individual bidders or between bidders and the Auctioneer, the Auctioneer will have the sole and final authority to resolve the dispute. Such resolution may include, but is not limited to: reselling, reopening the bidding only between the disputing bidders, or awarding the sale at the Auctioneer's judgment. The final bidder and amount announced by the Auctioneer is indisputable.

9. Full payment is required at or before the conclusion of the Auction and prior to the removal of any lot. Nashville Wine Auction accepts checks, MasterCard, Visa, Discover and American Express. The credit card(s) you provided at registration to receive your bidding paddle will be charged for the amount of your lot purchases after the auction unless another form of payment is presented at Check Out. The Check Out station will be clearly marked. Buyers will be given a statement which must be presented at the Pick Up area in order for the lots to be released.
10. All buyers must take possession of their wine and/or other tangible purchases from the Pick Up area on the night of the auction. Nashville Wine Auction will bear no responsibility for any wine or other tangible lot that has not been taken possession of and removed from the auction premises by the buyer.
11. In the event of loss or damage to any lot incurred in the course of its handling or storage during the auction event and before possession is taken by the buyer, the buyer will be compensated only as follows:
 - If the lot has not been paid for, the exact amount of the bid amount will be subtracted from the buyer's bidding statement.
 - If the lot has been paid for, the buyer will receive a refund of the bid amount only.

The goods sold at this event have no valuation beyond the amount of the final bid. Therefore, such credit or refunds are the sole remedy which will be made for such losses.

Lots that are not picked up on the night of the auction will be moved to the Nashville Wine Auction office. Law prohibits Nashville Wine Auction from delivering wine to buyers after purchase; therefore, it is the buyer's responsibility to pick up their purchases at the office (2416 21st Avenue South, Suite 101, Nashville, TN 37212). Lots that have not been picked up within 90 days after February 25, 2022 will be forfeited.

12. Admission to dinners, tastings and other Nashville Wine Auction events that are purchased at auction are not permitted to be resold or donated to another auction. Admission to dinners, tastings and other Nashville Wine Auction events that are purchased at auction may not be resold or transferred to another buyer without the permission of Nashville Wine Auction in advance.
13. Nashville Wine Auction is not responsible to refund admission prices for dinners, tastings or events if the winning bidder is not able to attend for any reason. Nashville Wine Auction is not responsible to refund admission prices for dinners, tastings or events that must be rescheduled due to weather or other acts of God.
14. Nashville Wine Auction is classified as a tax-exempt corporation (Tax I.D. Number is 71-0918163) under the Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3).

Trip Guidelines

1. Features and Amenities: Trips will be scheduled by the Nashville Wine Auction according to the catalog description or as described by the Auctioneer. Trips are comprised of donated components, many of which have limitations and restrictions. Deviations from the trip description which incur additional costs will be at the buyer(s) own expense.
2. Trip Components: Trips are sold as a package. Accommodations, dinners, air transportation, rental cars, venue tickets, rail passes, scheduled visits, or any other features which are included in the catalog lot description must be used only in conjunction with the specific trip described in the catalog.
3. Scheduling: Unless stated otherwise in the catalog description, all trips must be completed within one year from the date of the auction. Trips not taken within this or the special stated time limits will be forfeited with no refund made, without regard for the reason such trip was not taken. If a specific date for a trip is stated in the catalog, the trip is limited to that date only and must be taken on that specific date, no exceptions. Scheduling of donated features is subject to availability. Trips with special features (tours, tastings, stays) must be scheduled at least 60-90 days in advance.
4. Changes and Cancellation: Once the trip is scheduled and confirmed by the donors, changes may not be allowed by the donors. If the changing or canceling of any feature results in the donor being unable to honor the requested changes, the Nashville Wine Auction will not refund any portion of the lot purchase.
5. Airline Restrictions:
 - Airlines maintain a limited inventory of donated seats on any flight. Every effort will be made to fulfill your desired travel dates, but they are not guaranteed available. Once your flight(s) has been ticketed, changes in the schedule are rarely attainable and all require a change-in-schedule fee. Any re-booking fee will become the responsibility of the buyer. Airline schedules are subject to change and are beyond our control. Should a cancellation occur, the Airline will make a reasonable effort to accommodate the buyer. However, the Nashville Wine Auction is not responsible in the event of flight changes or cancellations.
 - Departure and arrival locations must be served by the Airline. Code shares do not qualify.
 - Flights must be booked at least 3 months in advance. Seats for promotional tickets/travel are capacity controlled and are based on availability at the time of reservation. Although seats may be available for purchase through the Airline, the same seats are not guaranteed available for use with vouchers/promotional tickets. Once ticketed, fees per person apply for simple date/time changes, routing changes, and/or name changes. It is the buyer(s) responsibility to pay these fees if changes are made.
 - The class of travel is also based upon availability. If the specified class is not available for any portion of your flight, Nashville Wine Auction is not responsible. Certain legs of your trip may not offer first or business class, or these seats may be filled. The Airline will try and accommodate the class specification as best they can, but it is not guaranteed.
 - Trip buyers are responsible for luggage fees.

6. Domestic Trips: Please read the catalog lot description carefully regarding domestic air transportation and the class of service offered for each lot. Some trips do not include air transportation. If included in the trip, domestic flights may be contributed or arranged through various airlines. Review the lot description thoroughly before bidding.
7. Upgrades and Mileage Credit: Upgrades are not available on donated tickets for either domestic or international flights. Mileage credit or any other promotional benefits are not available for donated air transportation. Stopovers are not allowed, except for connecting purposes.
8. Rental Cars: Some trips may include the use of a rental car. Rental car companies require payment to be made by the person operating the car. The Nashville Wine Auction cannot guarantee that the type of car reserved will be available at the time of pick-up. Based on the inventory of the car provider, a specific car which was reserved may not be available at the time of pick-up. If the car reserved is not available, a suitable replacement of a comparable model will be reimbursed by the Nashville Wine Auction. Any additional upgrade made by the buyer will not be reimbursed.
9. Reimbursements: For practical reasons (or requirements by vendors), some trip features or amenities may have to be paid for by the buyers at the time of use. Such expenditures will be reimbursed in full by the Nashville Wine Auction, provided that:
 - The feature or amenity is specifically included in the trip lot description
 - The amount spent is equal to or less than the agreed upon amount set by Nashville Wine Auction
 - The buyer renders to the Nashville Wine Auction proper documentation - paid invoices or credit card receipts
